HANDS . . .

our hearts, and our minds, we have been striving this past year to build a better school with better citizens.

Here are your memories of that year, THE 1956 KITE.

DEDICATION

Because you possess those qualities of character and leadership—understanding, cooperation, guidance—which command our deepest respect;

Because you have furthered the scholastic achievements of our school, and also the interest of the student toward his own scholastic achievement;

Because you have worked to make Franklin High School better;

We sincerely dedicate to you, Mr. Curry, the 1956 Yearbook.

Other returning lettermen were: Dave Parish, center; Bill Cook, guard; Kenneth Mahoney, tackle; Gilford Deputy, tackle; Harold Jones, quarterback; Frank Lewis, halfback; and Jewett McGlocklin, tackle.

Much praise must also be given to the assistant coach, Harold Stinson; second team coach, Robert Claxton; freshman coach, "Doc" Smith; and the student managers, Bob Malone and Eddie Legan.

Phil Pettit, senior halfback and captain, was chosen Most Valuable Player of the year at the annual Lions Club banquet held at the Hillview Country Club on November 14.

This season was a hot and cold one for the Cubs, marked by overtimes and heartbreaks. With returning lettermen — Jewett McGlocklin, Ralph Ramsey, and James Williams, Senior starters—John Nash, Jerry Miller, Bob Woods, and John Cameron; and Junior starters—Bud Jones and Frank Friedersdorf, the Cubs showed great determination and fighting spirit in their games. After a hard-fought 7-13 season, sudden death came to Franklin in the Sectional when Greenwood dropped them 55-51.

This year, for the first time in history, Franklin had a Pep Club and the beginning of a flash card section. And, in order not to disappoint the fashion-minded fans, the Cubs sported red, white, and blue striped suits.

GOLF

HILLVIEW COUNTRY CLUB

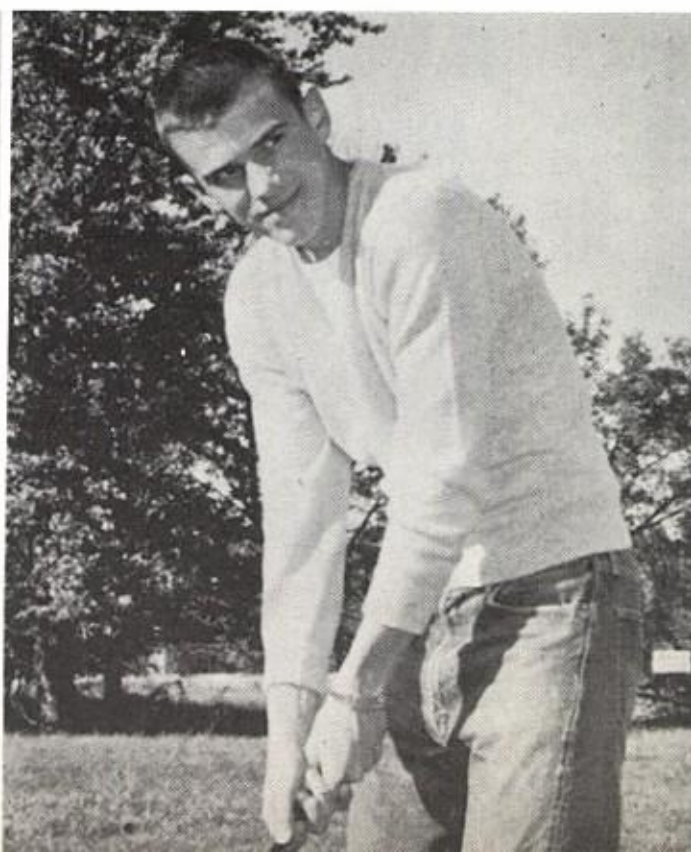

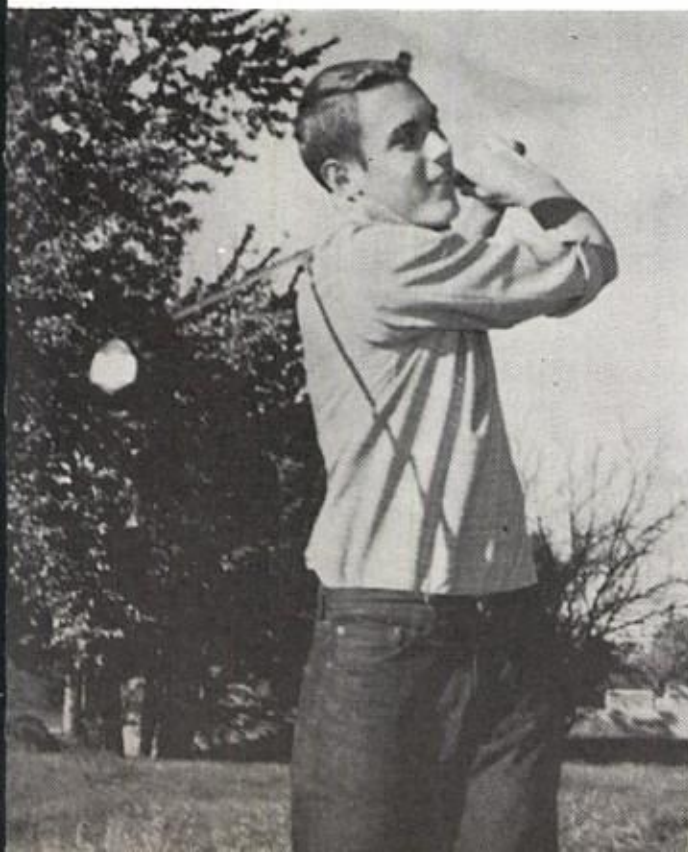

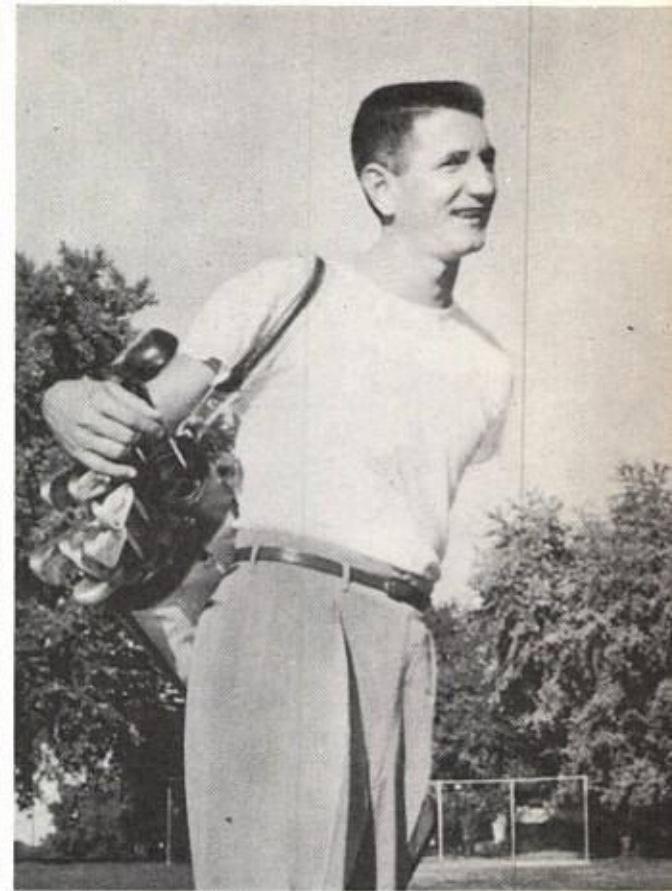

Fore !! Coach Bob Evans led the Franklin High School golfers to seventh place in the South Central Conference, with an over-all total of 364 points.

The team did a very fine job considering the loss of experienced players due to graduation last year. With the sharp shooting of Gordon Brown, Russell Smock, Allen Kennedy, and Bill Thomas, the golfers won their share of games.

The scores were as follows:

Martinsville.....	8	Franklin	7
Seymour.....	12	Franklin	0
Columbus.....	3½	Franklin	8½
Martinsville.....	10½	Franklin	1½
